March 11, 2007—

A wonderful tasting was had by all at the Blosverens despite the chilly and treacherous, but picturesque, winter backdrop. Bill Eisberg and Nan Slick pulled together to make a fine presentation of lesser-known Italian regions and varietals. Thanks to Richard, Carmen, Bill and Nan!—Dean

Wine Hosts: Tasting Topics, Please!

FYI—Betty Kreder is now with the Society of

Our 27th Anniversary Wine Tasting will be at the home of Emily and Jack Johnston on Sunday, March 18th at 2:00 pm. Jack will be presenting Specialties of the House—“Off-the-beaten-track wines which have found a niche in specific regions of the world”. Please call the Johnstons by March 14th if you would like to attend. Please, don't forget to bring something for the table.

Regions You Won't Believe!

Membership Matters—Do not let your membership (due January 1) in CCAWS lapse because you forgot to renew your membership in the American Wine Society ($57/year—for convenient, on-line management of your membership, visit www.AmericanWineSociety.org) and this chapter ($10/year—see John Landon, our helpful, congenial treasurer). Remember that the drop-dead date is March 2, after which your membership drops dead until resurrected with the requisite $67. I know some of you would like to make one payment to CCAWS and have us manage your AWS membership, but that overly complicates things for us and might force us to pay our treasurer with more than just compliments and gratitude!
